friends will find them between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 1/2 p. m.

Mr. Geo. H. Horton, who has gone into the real estate business, has one of the finest turnouts in the city. He is a young man who is bound to succeed.

LOST!—On Sunday evening August 1, between 1503 V and 1629 O sts., N. W., a black spanish bee scarf a yard wide. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the latter number.

The annual meeting of the stock holders of the U. S. and Congo National Emigration S. S. Co., will take place Monday eve, Aug. 15, at 7 o'clock, at their rooms on F

John H. Paynter, Sec'y.

Mr. W. C. Reeves, of the Pension Office, who has been spending several days at Woodland, Va., has returned to the city much improved in health. Mr. Reeves is one of the progressive young men in the state of Virginia. He has a head like Socrates.

Miss Eliza Upshaw, who has been spending some time at Atlantic City, N. J., was compelled to leave on account of a severe attack of pneumonia. She

By the Working Clubs of the 2nd Baptist church, at MANOR PARK 4th Sunday in August 1887. Steamer leaves wharf foot of 6th Street wharf every hour from 9 a. m.
ROUND TRIP 30 Cts.

HIS GREATEST FEAT.

The Civil Rights barber shop, at the corner of 15th and L sts., N. W., is the most popular barber shop in the city. Capt. Gray knows how to do a man's head and face up in style. His greatest feat is to make an ugly man pretty. This is what the captain can do. Clean towels on everybody and the purest and best perfume.

MARRIAGE REPORTS.

Mr. Ed. Smith, of E St., S. W., is engaged to be married to one of the most amiable young ladies of that section. As Mr. Smith is an energetic young man, success will follow him.

Mr. Moses Foskey, Jr., of the "Advocate" will be united in the holy bonds of wedlock. From what the lady said to the Bee scribe, it will happen soon.

OFF TO FREDERICK.

The Washington Cadet Corps carried off a large crowd to Frederick City, Md., Thursday morning.
There were ten coaches crowded.
It was remarked that two of the Capital City Guard Officers were endeavoring to persuade the people to wait until their excursion to Philadelphia went. The action of these officers was condemned. Their persuasive remarks did not prevent the Cadets from carrying a large crowd.

SPOILED HIS BEAUTY.

Mr. W. Handy Johnson, who has been at Long Branch, N. J. for some time enjoying the salt air and water, was becoming famous as a base ballist, met with a sad accident while playing a championship game of ball by having one upper and two lower teeth knocked out, which caused his quick exit from Long Branch to the city of magnificent distances, possessing a better knowledge of the art of base ball. The boy who at one time possessed such a symmetrical appearance, has now had his beauty spoiled.

A GRAND PICNIC

To be given under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary to Charles Sumner Post, No. 9, G. A. R., for the benefit of the Relief Fund, at Brown's Park, Seventh street above Boundary, on August 25, 1887. Good music and dancing.
Refreshments at moderate prices.
Committee of Arrangements: Mrs.
A. E. Cole, chairman; Mrs. S. E.
Johnson, Mrs. F. M. Frelinghuysen,
Mesdames: H. B. Quander, B.
Grady, A. E. King, A. D. Smallwood, and E. A. Foskey, Miss Flora Cole, Secretary. Doors open at 12 m.

ADMISSION 25 Cts.

To be had of the Committee.

BAPTIST S. S. UNION.

The Baptist Sunday School Union will meet to-morrow afternoon, at the Enon Baptist Church, at 3 o'clock, C st. between 6 and 7 sts., S. E. The election of officers will take place, after which there will be speaking etc. Alexander Hamilton, who has served so faithfully as President of the Union, will not be reelected. He is a hard working young man who has done a great deal of good in the community and counties. There is no one in the city who would give the time and labor for the upholding of this Union as Mr. Hamilton, and the delegates will do a wise thing to elect him unanimously. He is entitled to the compliment. The secretary, Miss Pryor, has been a faithful officer. She is a young woman of push and energy, and the Bee knows of no two persons who will more faithfully fill these positions.

Read the Bee next week, it will be interesting.

A MALICIOUS CHARGE

AGAINST A DEPARTMENTAL CLERK REFUTED. WAS IT A CASE OF
BLACK MAIL? DETECTIVES MC-DEVITT AND FLINDER GET AT THE BOTTOM OF IT. WHO THE RESPON-SIBLE PARTIES ARE. NO FOUNDA-TION FOR THE REPORT. MR. OUT-LAW'S LETTER AND THE DETEC-TIVES REPORT, ALL IN FUN.

In the Bee of July 30th was published an article concerning a clerk in the Treasury Department as follows:

"Some time ago the Bee had occasion to inform the colored people of an assertion made by a colored man, who is a clerk in the Treasury department and known as a ten per cent money shark.
A few years ago this man stated that 'every Washington woman had her price' and that he saw none that he would marry. As a matter of fact, this individual has always been in the company of ladies or attempting to persuade some young Miss to houses of dis-repute. A few days ago, while this money shark was escorting a respectable young lady out, he requested her to call with him at a certain disreputable house in this city, pretending to her that the people were respectable, and that he had business with them.
The lady consented, but after her arrival there, to her surprise and horror, the scoundrel attempted to take improper liberties with her, but owing to the resolute disposition of the young lady and her threats to inform her parents, the villain failed to accomplish his purpose.

On the arrival of the lady at her home, she informed her parents of what had been done, and had not the culprit appealed for mercy, he would be behind the bars today. If it were not for the high social standing of the lady, the Bee would expose the whole matter. The department should know him, and the wretch dismissed. If the lady will consent the Bee will inform the department and then the public will know who the libertine is."

The information was furnished by Mr. W. H. Outlaw, unsolicited by the Bee. At the time of its publication the Bee presumed that Mr. Outlaw and his friend were still on intimate terms, but it has been since learned that there has been a little misunderstanding between the two gentlemen who have been life friends, but whether Mr. Outlaw took this opportunity to get even is a question the public must decide. When the article was published persons friendly to the gentlemen in the department informed the Bee that the charge was false and the person who made it knew it was false when he informed the Bee. On receiving this information the case was given to

DETECTIVES MCDEVITT AND FLINDER two of the shrewdest detectives in the country to find out whether there was anything in the statement. These detectives spared neither time, pains nor expense to get at the bottom of this malicious charge, which resulted in the following report from them?

NATIONAL BUREAU OF INFORMATION.
Detective Agency,
No. 805 Pa. Ave. N. W.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 9, '87.

"To Mr. ———"

Dear Sir:—We have investigated the article in the Bee namely "A Department Clerk and supposed to have reference to you, date July 30th, '87. This article was caused by a conversation that occurred between one Wm. H.
Outlaw and one Mrs. Strange residing at No. 506 P St. N. W. The said Wm. H. Outlaw did call on W. Calvin Chase, the editor of said Bee and related to him the substance of the conversation between himself and Mrs. Strange and said it was a fact and true in all particulars.

Now we find that there was no truth whatever in the statement made to Chase by Outlaw and there was not a shadow of any suspicion to base such a statement upon, and the only cause we can find is, that Wm. H. Outlaw did make this statement to Chase for the purpose of injuring the character and reputation of said ———.
Mrs. Strange has said to us that the only object she had was, when Mr. ——— would hear of it he would call upon her and then he would find out there was no truth in it.

Very respectfully,
McDevitt & Flinder."

The above is the result of the investigation made by these two well known and enterprising detectives. Their report is substantiated by a letter written to the editor of the Bee by Mr. Outlaw and brought to this office by him Tuesday August 9th, which is as follows, verbatim et literatim, except the name of the party omitted:

MR. OUTLAW'S LETTER.

"MR. ——— EXONORATED.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8th, '87.
Having every right to believe the state made in the Bee about Mr. ——— is untrue and without the slightest foundation; and am more than sorry that I repeated the erroneous statement made to me by Mrs. Strange by whom it seems the whole report originated since she refuses to tell her author and says she said it in fun. She told me at her house in the presence of all her help that Mr. ——— was in trouble had taken a nice lady and fooled her in a disreputable house making her believe it was all right. She said to me have you not heard it. I said no, she said it will all be out in the Bee next week I ask her who the lady was she said I can't think of the lady's name, but it will be in the B. when she found out where she was she kicked up James Henry and told her brother about it, and costed him Mr. (——) $50 The next day I saw Mr. Chase passing my place I hailed him and asked him what was this and who was the young lady and told him what Mrs. B. B.
Strange told me.

W. H. OUTLAW."

There was no statement made in the Bee about anything until Mr.
Outlaw gave the information; and it was not until after the report had been published in the Bee that Mr. Outlaw called on Mrs. Strange, the second time, and requested her to give him the name of the lady, then it was that she said the whole matter would be published in the Bee.

MR. DOUGLASS' DEFENSE.

HE CLAIMS TO BE NO SERF. HE COMPLIMENTS THE ISSUES OF THE WAR. WHAT THE NEGROES ARE.
HE CALLS THE MEETING A FARCE.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9, '87.
EDITOR BEE:—In your article, "He Bows," published in your issue of last week, you evidently intended to show to your readers that my article on the subject of the meeting, held to send delegates to Boston, was in some way an attempt by me to bow in submission or subjection to Mr.
Trotter. If simply making a statement of facts, which I did, is the evidence that your charge is true, then I am guilty. You also stated in your criticism of me, that I had said that, "if there is anyone who objects to Mr.
Trotter he should have been at the meeting." I said nothing of the kind, neither have I discussed Mr. Trotter or anybody else in connection with that meeting. I was not at the meeting, and had no part in it directly or indirectly, though I do not question the right of those who were present to choose whom they desired to represent them. I called the meeting a farce because there was no occasion for the election of delegates, for the reason that all honorably discharged colored veterans were cordially invited to the reunion.

You express the hope that I am not a serf to bow to Mr. Trotter. I can assure you that I am not a serf, but that I do bow to Mr. Trotter whenever we chance to meet. In the sense you use the word "serf," you ought to know that I am not a serf and could not be if I so desired. Slavery is abolished in this District and you have been instrumental in having the event celebrated annually. I have had no occasion to do any unnecessary bowing to Mr. Trotter, or any other official, I am not a time server of anyone.

In another allusion to me, in regard to our District Militia, you seem to have fallen into the error that I am defending prosercription.
You advised the colored militia to withdraw from an organization to which they have sworn allegiance for the term of three years; because Gen'l Ordway failed to place upon his staff a colored officer. I simply stated that we could not withdraw if we wished to, and especially for no such reason as you give. The South tried to withdraw from the Union because of the election of Mr. Lincoln. You know what the result was. Perhaps our enemies would be glad to see us mutiny, and be disbanded. We would then be deprived of our arms and equipments. The colored people would say we had made fools of ourselves, and we would not have their support to procure a new outfit. The result would be that the white young men of the District would receive all the benefits of military training, and the colored would be lookers on and followers of the band as of yore.

We had to "stoop to conquer" during the late war. We could not be commissioned officers in the field, no matter how brave, or competent. Hawkins, Fleetwood, Holland and others, whom I could name, had they been white, would have emerged from the war with stars on their shoulders instead of stripes on their arms and medals on their breasts; but notwithstanding they were not given opportunities for military development such as that they ought to have had, and which they fairly won by their conduct on the field, we did not withdraw or cease enlisting. Had we kept out of the war on account of the injustice done us, what would you and I and all the rest of us be to-day?
Certainly not editors and clerks.

What we want now is to keep up the spirit of the times in which we live, learn all we can of everything that the white people consider necessary for them to know in order to better their condition, and then we can claim equal rights as citizens with them.

A few months ago we were without organization, now we are organized and being regularly commissioned as officers of the National Guard of the National Capital, and by a democratic President at that. I think Mr. Editor upon reflection, you will "withdraw" your advice, and tell us to stick.

CHARLES R. DOUGLASS.
